

Future of Legal Gender

A research bulletin from the ESRC-funded feminist and critical law reform project.

Summer
2021

OVERVIEW

Podcast

We are delighted to launch a short series podcast discussing our research findings to date.

—

Blog post

What does legal gender status mean for different members of the public?

—

Special issue

'The Future of Legal Gender: Exploring the Feminist Politics of Decertification' is available to read at feminists@law

Updates

May 2021 - We published a response to our discussion prompt asking, what future do we want for gender?

June 2021 - We held an online roundtable with early career researchers to explore decertification from a transnational perspective.

June 2021 - Prof Emily Grabham led a workshop with legislative drafters and master's students to receive valuable feedback on our draft legislative guide.

June 2021 - Prof Elizabeth Peel and Dr Han Newman presented papers about non-binary perspectives on legal gender at the annual British Psychology Society conference.

June 2021 - Dr Flora Renz gave an overview of our findings to Finsbury Glover Hering.

August 2021 - Prof Liz Peel published a blog post exploring what legal gender means in everyday life drawing upon legal consciousness and discursive psychology.

August 2021 - We launched a short series podcast which will provide an overview of our research findings to date. Listen to episode one with Dr Flora Renz on single-sex schools and women's domestic violence shelters.

Upcoming

In the final phase of our project, we are holding discussions with stakeholders as we prepare a legislative guide on decertification.

If your organisation would like us to speak to members on project findings, please get in touch.

You have been sent this email because you have participated in a FLaG event, been involved with our research, or requested to join the mailing list.

If you no longer want to receive emails, please click here and press send.